Chapter 1 – OTC derivatives, central counterparties and trade repositories

Article 1. (1) The CSSF is the competent authority responsible for carrying out, pursuant to Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 4 July 2012 on OTC derivatives, central counterparties and trade repositories, the duties with respect to authorisation and supervision of central counterparties established in Luxembourg, without prejudice to the duties of the Banque centrale du Luxembourg under the Treaty on the Functioning of the European Union and the Statute of the European System of Central Banks and of the European Central Bank. The CSSF shall ensure the compliance by the central counterparties with the provisions of Titles IV and V of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 and is the competent authority for the purposes of applying Article 54 of that regulation. The CSSF is also competent to withdraw the authorisation of a central counterparty pursuant to Article 20 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012.

(2) The CSSF is the competent authority to ensure that the financial counterparties (...) <sup>1</sup> and the non-financial counterparties comply with the provisions of Title II of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012.

“By way of derogation from the first subparagraph, the” <sup>2</sup> Commissariat aux Assurances is the competent authority to ensure that the financial counterparties subject to its supervision comply with the provisions of Title II of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012.

Moreover, the CSSF and the Commissariat aux Assurances are the competent authorities for the purposes of applying Article 88(2) of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 in accordance with their respective competences.

(3) Without prejudice to paragraph 4, the CSSF is the competent authority referred to in Title VI of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 in Luxembourg.

(Law of 20 July 2022)

“(3a) The CSSF, as the competent authority designated in paragraph 1, is also the competent authority in Luxembourg for the recovery of central counterparties under Regulation (EU) 2021/23 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 December 2020 on a framework for the recovery and resolution of central counterparties and amending Regulations (EU) No 1095/2010, (EU) No 648/2012, (EU) No 600/2014, (EU) No 806/2014 and (EU) 2015/2365 and Directives 2002/47/EC, 2004/25/EC, 2007/36/EC, 2014/59/EU and (EU) 2017/1132, hereinafter “Regulation (EU) 2021/23”.”

(4) In Luxembourg, the Commissariat aux Assurances is the competent authority referred to in Title VI of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012, where a trade repository is an entity authorised by or registered at the Commissariat aux Assurances.

(5) For the purposes of applying Regulation (EU) No 648/2012, the CSSF may exchange information and cooperate with the competent authorities of other Member States, the European Commission, the European Securities and Markets Authority, the European Banking Authority, the European Central Bank, the Banque centrale du Luxembourg and the other members concerned of the European System of Central Banks, within the limits, under the conditions and according to the terms defined by that regulation.

Article 2. (1) For the purposes of applying Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 “and Regulation (EU) 2021/23” <sup>3</sup>, the CSSF has all the powers of supervision, intervention, inspection and investigation which are necessary to exercise its functions within the limits set in the above-mentioned “regulations” <sup>4</sup>.

The powers of the CSSF include the right to:

1. have access to any document in any form whatsoever, and to receive a copy of it;
2. request information from financial counterparties subject to its supervision “pursuant to Article 1(2)” <sup>5</sup>, non-financial counterparties, central counterparties and trading venues including persons who are successively involved in the transmission of orders or execution of the operations concerned, as well as their principals, and if necessary, to summon and hear any person;

3. carry out on-site inspections and investigations at financial counterparties subject to its supervision "pursuant to Article 1(2)"<sup>6</sup>, central counterparties and trading venues;
4. require financial counterparties subject to its supervision "pursuant to Article 1(2)"<sup>7</sup>, non-financial counterparties, central counterparties and trading venues to communicate the existing telephone and existing data traffic records;
5. order financial counterparties subject to its supervision "pursuant to Article 1(2)"<sup>8</sup>, non-financial counterparties, central counterparties and trading venues to cease any practice that is contrary to Regulation (EU) No 648/2012.

(2) For the purposes of applying Regulation (EU) No 648/2012, the Commissariat aux Assurances has all the powers of supervision, intervention, inspection and investigation which are necessary to exercise its functions within the limits set in the above-mentioned regulation.

The powers of the Commissariat aux Assurances include the right to:

1. have access to any document in any form whatsoever, and to receive a copy of it;
2. request information from financial counterparties subject to its supervision, including persons who are successively involved in the transmission of orders or execution of the operations concerned, as well as their principals, and if necessary, to summon and hear any person;
3. carry out on-site inspections or investigations at financial counterparties subject to its supervision;
4. require financial counterparties subject to its supervision to communicate the existing telephone and data traffic records;
5. order financial counterparties subject to its supervision to cease any practice that is contrary to Regulation (EU) No 648/2012.

Article 3. (1) The CSSF may sanction:

1. financial counterparties subject to its supervision "pursuant to Article 1(2)"<sup>9</sup> and non-financial counterparties for non-compliance with the provisions laid down in Articles 4, "4a,"<sup>10</sup> 5, 9, 10 or 11 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or with the measures taken in execution of these articles;
2. central counterparties for non-compliance with the provisions laid down in Articles 7, 9, 15, 16, 26 to 31 or 33 to 53 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or with the measures taken in execution of these articles;
3. trading venues for non-compliance with the provisions laid down in Article 8 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or with the measures taken in execution of this article;
4. financial counterparties subject to its supervision "pursuant to Article 1(2)"<sup>11</sup>, non-financial counterparties, central counterparties and trading venues in cases where, in the framework of or pursuant to the provisions of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or measures taken in execution of this regulation:
  - a) they publish information that is incomplete, incorrect or false;
  - b) they refuse to provide documents or other requested information required by the CSSF for the purposes of applying Regulation (EU) No 648/2012;
  - c) they provided documentation or other information that is incomplete, incorrect or false;
  - d) they preclude the performance of the powers of supervision, intervention and, where applicable, inspection and investigation of the CSSF;
  - e) they fail to act in response to the orders of CSSF issued in accordance with point (5) of Article 2(1);

(Law of 20 July 2022)

- "5. central counterparties as well as the members of their management body, their effective directors or any other natural person responsible for the breach, in case of failure:
  - a) to comply with the requirements laid down in 9(1) to (4), Article 9(6), the first subparagraph of Article 9(7), Article 9(9) to (11), Article 9(13) and (14) and Article (16) to (21) of Regulation (EU) 2021/23;

- b) to submit their recovery plan to the CSSF, as required under Article 10(1) of Regulation (EU) 2021/23; or
  - c) by the central counterparty to maintain at all times a sufficient amount of instruments of ownership, as required under Article 35(1);
6. clearing members subject to its supervision as well as the members of their management body, their effective directors or any other natural person responsible for the breach, in case of failure to comply with Article 9(23) of Regulation (EU) 2021/23.”

(2) The Commissariat aux Assurances may sanction financial counterparties subject to its supervision where:

1. they do not comply with the provisions laid down in Articles 4, 5, 9, 10 or 11 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or with the measures taken in execution of these articles;
2. in the framework of or pursuant to the provisions of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or its implementing measures, they publish information that is incomplete, incorrect or false;
3. in the framework of or pursuant to the provisions of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or measures taken in execution of this regulation, they refuse to provide documents or other requested information required by the Commissariat aux Assurances for the purposes of applying Regulation (EU) No 648/2012;
4. in the framework of or pursuant to the provisions of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or measures taken in execution of this regulation, they provided documents or other information that is incomplete, incorrect or false;
5. in the framework of or pursuant to the provisions of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or measures taken in execution of this regulation, they preclude the performance of the powers of supervision, intervention, inspection and investigation of the Commissariat aux Assurances;
6. in the framework of or pursuant to the provisions of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or measures taken in execution of this regulation, they fail to act in response to the orders of the Commissariat aux Assurances issued in accordance with point (5) of Article 2(2).

(3) “For breaches referred to in points (1) to (4) of paragraph 1, the<sup>12</sup> CSSF and the Commissariat aux Assurances may issue, in order of gravity:

1. a warning;
2. a reprimand;
3. an administrative fine amounting to not less than EUR 125 and not more than EUR 1,500,000, or if the infringement procured direct or indirect pecuniary benefit to the persons referred to in this article, a fine of an amount that cannot be less than the profit made or exceed five times that amount;
4. a prohibition, either limited in time or permanent, to carry out one or several activities or transactions on a category of financial instruments or to provide certain services.

When imposing a sanction, the CSSF and the Commissariat aux Assurances take into account the nature, the duration and the gravity of the infringement, the conduct and the background of the natural or legal person to be sanctioned, the damage to third parties and the advantages or profits which could have been or which were made through the infringement.

(Law of 20 July 2022)

“(3a) For breaches referred to in points (5) and (6) of paragraph 1, the CSSF may issue:

1. a warning or reprimand;
2. a public statement which indicates the natural person, central counterparty, or other legal person responsible and the nature of the breach;
3. an order requiring the natural or legal person responsible to cease the conduct and to desist from a repetition of that conduct;
4. a temporary ban to exercise functions in a central counterparty against any member of the management body or the authorised management of the central counterparty or any other natural person, who is held responsible;

5. the suspension of the exercise of the voting rights attached to the shares or units held by the shareholders or members held responsible for the breaches referred to in points (5) and (6) of paragraph 1;
6. in the case of a legal person, administrative fines of up to EUR 5,000,000 or 10 per cent of the total annual net turnover of that legal person in the preceding business year. Where the legal person is a subsidiary of a parent undertaking, the relevant turnover shall be the turnover resulting from the consolidated accounts of the ultimate parent undertaking in the preceding business year;
7. in the case of a natural person, administrative fines of up to EUR 5,000,000;
8. administrative fines of up to twice the amount of the benefit derived from the breach where that benefit can be determined.

When determining the type of administrative sanctions or other administrative measures and the level of administrative fines, the CSSF shall take into account all the circumstances provided for in Article 85 of Regulation (EU) 2021/23.”

(4) The CSSF and the Commissariat aux Assurances publish on their website, without undue delay, the sanctions imposed pursuant to this article for infringements to Articles 4, 5 and 7 to 11 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012, in accordance with Article 12(2) of that regulation. “The CSSF publishes on its website, without undue delay, the decisions imposing an administrative sanction or measure which are into force (force de chose décidée) or which have become res judicata (force de chose jugée) and which were issued pursuant to this article for breach of Articles 9, 10 and 35 of Regulation (EU) 2021/23, in accordance with Article 83 of that regulation.”<sup>13</sup>

Any information published pursuant to the first subparagraph shall remain on the website of the CSSF and of the Commissariat aux Assurances for five years.

(Law of 20 July 2022)

“Personal data of natural persons contained in the publications referred to in the first subparagraph shall only be kept on their website for a maximum period of 12 months.”

Article 4. An action for reversal against the decisions adopted by the CSSF or by the Commissariat aux Assurances in implementation of this law may be brought before the Tribunal administratif (Administrative Tribunal).

(Law of 20 July 2022)

“Chapter 1a – Resolution of central counterparties

Article 4-1. Resolution authority and competent minister

(1) The CSSF is the resolution authority in Luxembourg within the meaning of Article 3(1) of Regulation (EU) 2021/23.

The CSSF shall exercise the tasks and powers conferred on it as the resolution authority by this law and by Regulation (EU) 2021/23 through the Resolution Board referred to in Article 4 of the Law of 23 December 1998 establishing a financial sector supervisory commission (“Commission de surveillance du secteur financier”), as amended.

Any reference to the Resolution Board in this law shall be read as a reference to the CSSF in its capacity as resolution authority in Luxembourg.

(2) The Resolution Board and the Executive Board of the CSSF and the various services and departments reporting to these bodies shall closely cooperate when drawing up, planning and applying the resolution decisions of central counterparties. The Resolution Board shall carry out the resolution functions independently from the supervisory functions of the CSSF.

(3) The Minister responsible for the financial sector is the competent minister to exercise the functions assigned to the “competent ministry” under Article 3(8) of Regulation (EU) 2021/23. The Resolution Board shall inform, without delay, the Minister responsible for the financial sector of draft decisions which lead, immediately or in the future, to a call for public support, irrespective of the form of support or which may have systemic consequences. These draft decisions shall be subject to prior approval by the Minister responsible for the financial sector. Where such a decision has systemic implications, the Resolution Board shall inform the Comité du risque systémique (Systemic Risk Committee) thereof.

Article 4-2. Sanctions and other administrative measures

(1) As part of its remit, the Resolution Board may impose administrative sanctions and other administrative measures referred to in paragraph 2:

1. on central counterparties, members of the management body, as well as on other natural persons responsible for the breach, in case of breach of Article 13. Article 15(3), Article 16(3), (6) and (7), the first subparagraph of Article 27(6), the first subparagraph of Article 29(3), Article 39, Article 70(1) and Article 75(2) of Regulation (EU) 2021/23;
2. on clearing members, members of the management body, as well as on other natural persons responsible for the breach, in case of breach of letter (b) of Article 15(3), the second subparagraph of Article 29(3), Article 31(1) and Article 51(1).

(2) The Resolution Board may impose one or several of the following sanctions and measures:

1. a warning or reprimand;
2. a public statement which indicates the natural person, central counterparty, or other legal person responsible and the nature of the breach;
3. an order requiring the natural or legal person responsible to cease the conduct and to desist from a repetition of that conduct;
4. a temporary ban to exercise functions in a central counterparty against any member of the management body or the authorised management of the central counterparty or any other natural person, who is held responsible;
5. the suspension of the exercise of the voting rights attached to the shares or units held by the shareholders or members held responsible for the breaches referred to in paragraph 1;
6. in the case of a legal person, administrative fines of up to EUR 5,000,000 or 10 per cent of the total annual net turnover of that legal person in the preceding business year. Where the legal person is a subsidiary of a parent undertaking, the relevant turnover shall be the turnover resulting from the consolidated accounts of the ultimate parent undertaking in the preceding business year;
7. in the case of a natural person, administrative fines of up to EUR 5,000,000;
8. administrative fines of up to twice the amount of the benefit derived from the breach where that benefit can be determined.

When determining the type of administrative sanctions or other administrative measures and the level of administrative fines, the Resolution Board shall take into account all the circumstances provided for in Article 85 of Regulation (EU) 2021/23.

Article 4-3. Remedies

(1) Any decision to take a resolution action under Regulation (EU) 2021/23 may be subject to proceedings for annulment before the Tribunal administratif (Administrative Tribunal) within one month from the date of notification of the decision or, where applicable, of its publication as referred to in Article 72(3) of Regulation (EU) 2021/23, or else shall be time-barred.

It shall be carried out in accordance with the Law of 21 June 1999 laying down the rules of procedure of administrative courts, as amended, except the derogations laid down in this article.

The proceedings shall not have suspensive effect.

(2) Where it is necessary to protect the interests of third parties acting in good faith who have acquired shares, other instruments of ownership, assets, rights or liabilities of a central counterparty under resolution by virtue of the use of a resolution tool or exercise of a resolution power by the Resolution Board, the annulment of a decision of the Resolution Board shall not affect any subsequent administrative acts or transactions concluded by the Resolution Board which were based on the annulled decision. In that case, remedies for a wrongful decision or action by the Resolution Board shall be limited to compensation for the loss suffered by the applicant as a result of the decision or act.

(3) Within two working days from the publication referred to in Article 72(3) of Regulation (EU) 2021/23, a stay of execution or safeguards may be filed with the President of the Tribunal administratif (Administrative Tribunal) under the conditions of Article 11 and 12 of the Law of 21 June 1999 laying down the rules of procedure of administrative courts. The referral to the President of the Tribunal administratif (Administrative Tribunal) shall not have suspensive effect.

The decisions referred to in paragraph 1 shall appear in the form of a mere presumption according to which the suspension of enforcement of the decision would be against the public interest.

(4) The courts hearing the case shall adjudicate urgently by taking into account the circumstances surrounding the decision taken and, in particular, complex economic assessments of the facts carried out by the Resolution Board or, where applicable, by the supervisory authority.

Article 4-4. Remedies in relation to administrative sanctions

The decisions taken by the Resolution Board pursuant to this chapter to issue an administrative sanction or to take any other administrative measure in accordance with Article 4-2 may be referred to the Tribunal administratif (Administrative Tribunal) which deals with the substance of the case. The action shall be filed within one month, or else shall be time-barred.

Article 4-5. Publication of decisions

(1) The Resolution Board shall publish on its website, in accordance with the arrangements provided for in Article 83 of Regulation (EU) 2021/23, the decisions imposing an administrative sanction or measure which are into force (force de chose décidée) or which have become res judicata (force de chose jugée) and which were issued due to a breach referred to in Article 4-2(1).

(2) The Resolution Board shall ensure that any decision published in accordance with this article remains available on its website for a period of five years following its publication.

Personal data of natural persons contained in the publications referred to in the first subparagraph shall only be kept on the website for a maximum period of 12 months.”

(Law of 29 March 2024)

“Article 4-6. Restrictions on company law

By way of derogation from the Law of 10 August 1915 on commercial companies, as amended:

1. Article 420-10(2) to (4), Article 420-22, Article 420-23, Article 420-26, the reference to Article 420-7 in Article 420-6, Article 450-4, the first to the third subparagraphs of Article 450-5, Article 450-7 and Article 480-2 of that law shall not apply in the case of use of resolution tools, powers and arrangements provided for in Title V of Regulation (EU) 2021/23, and
2. Articles 1020-1 to 1024-1 of that law, except where those provisions govern the formation of a European company through merger in accordance with Article 420-2(1) of that law or the formation of a European Cooperative Society through merger in accordance with Articles 832-1 to 832-4 of that law, and Articles 1030-1 to 1031-18 of that law, shall not apply to companies subject to the use of resolution tools, powers and arrangements provided for in Title V of Regulation (EU) 2021/23.”

Chapter 2 – Amending provisions<sup>14</sup>

(Law of 30 May 2018)

“Chapter 3 – Transitional and final provisions”

(Law of 30 May 2018)

“Article 10-1. The CSSF may grant the following exemptions:

1. until 3 January 2021, the clearing obligation set out in Article 4 of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 and the risk mitigation techniques set out in Article 11(3) thereof shall not apply to C6 energy derivative contracts as defined in Article 1, point 8, of the Law of 30 May 2018 on markets in financial instruments (hereinafter “C6 energy derivative contracts”) entered into by non-financial counterparties that meet the conditions in Article 10(1) of Regulation (EU) No 648/2012 or by non-
